SNOWDONIA NATIONAL PARK • ANGLESEY

• CAERNARFON • LLANGOLLEN

Lying on a sandy bay between the giant headlands of the Great and Little Orme and with Snowdonia towering in the background, Llandudno is without doubt the 'Queen of Welsh Resorts'. The town abounds with all the fun and entertainment of a traditional seaside holiday with attractions by the score. With such outstanding scenery on the doorstep, our excursions are particularly spectacular!

EXCURSIONS

FULL DAY: A lovely full day excursion through magnificent Snowdonia National Park. We head into the mountains to Blaenau Ffestiniog, with an opportunity to take an optional ride on the famous Ffestiniog Steam Railway, to Porthmadog. We continue with the scenic journey to the slate mining town of Llanberis and a memorable drive over the Llanberis Pass.

HALF DAY: Today we visit Llangollen, famous for its international Eisteddfod music festival and one of the prettiest towns on the River Dee. Later we ascend the spectacular Horseshoe Pass which offers wonderful views across the Dee Valley.

FULL DAY: Following the magnificent North Wales coast road, between the mountains and the sea, we head for historic Caernarfon. The town is dominated by its famous castle and the ancient walls and gateways give it a distinctly medieval atmosphere. In the afternoon we cross the Menai Straits onto the Isle of Anglesey, 'Ynys Mon', to the locals, calling at Llanfair PG, shortened from the 58 letter longest name village in Britain, where the crafts and woollen centre is a busy tourist attraction.

GRAND ASH HOTEL, LLANDUDNO

The ever-popular Grand Ash is perfectly situated in a tree-lined avenue just five minutes level stroll to the promenade and town centre. There is a large lounge area with plenty of comfortable seating, a well-stocked bar, and a lovely dining room featuring excellent home-cooked food.

Bedrooms vary in size and aspect and, although simply furnished, feature private facilities, television and tea and coffee making facilities.

- Full breakfast and three course evening dinner plus tea or coffee
- Entertainment: 2 nights
- Lift
